The man who is charged with having stolen the Finney auto has been identified as Robert Hardwick, for-merly of Carlisle, who, the police of Connersville stated, has a police record in that city, and had been under suspicion for some time. Suspicion was aroused some days ago when Hardwick and another man purchased tickets from Connersville to Myers Station, in Nicholas county. They returned a few days later with an automobile and a dog, both alleged to be stolen.

One of the cards sent out by Chief of Police Link came to Sheriff Myers, of Carlisle, who compared it with the description he had received from the Connersville authorities and became satisfied that Hardwick was the man this speaking campaign is not to the wanted. Hardwick was arrested in Carlisle about a month ago on a warrant sent from Connersville charging him with abandoning his family.

At about the time of the filing of this suit a portion of the men who were party plaintiffs to this suit entered into a private contract with Col. In other words, had the suit been decided against the County Board of Education the county would have lost the difference between the $60,000 offered for the property prior to the bringing of the suit, and the $48,-000 paid for the property.

Within the past few weeks we have neard statements made that after the coming election this property would be secured from the County Board of Education. We believe that every fair-minded person will agree that an insistent, prospective purchoser of county property places himself in an awkward position when he offers himself as a candidate for membership on a Board that will have the power to sell the same property. Users of that very necessary article of commerce, gasoline, commonly known in this day and generation as 'gas," are chuckling over the rate war in progress between the local handlers and the Lexington concern recently located here. Some time ago the Consumers' Service Station Company, an incorporated concern composed of Lexington men, purchased the old property at the corner of Pleasant and Tenth streets, on the site of which they erected a service station, one of a chain of such established throughout the State. The building was opened for business Saturday, when, it was alleged, the operators without consulting other dealers as to the selling price of gasoline, cut the price to 31 cents a gallon. When the news became generally known the Paris retail dealers held a meeting, and shortly afterward made the announcement that they had met the cut, and had gone it one cent better. placing the retail price at thirty Weber, the noted foot city, Sunday, after a long illness due to Bright's disease, was held Tuesday day, October 26, in room 26, at the afternoon, with services conducted at the grave in the Paris Cemetery by those in need of his services. Dr. Rev. T. S. Smylie, pastor of the Paris Weber has gained fame as one of the Presbyterian church. The Elks' burforemost specialists in his line in the ial service was conducted by members of the Chattanooga, Tenn., lodge, of which Mr. Nippert had been an official for the past fifteen years. At the time of his death he was Past Exalted Ruler and a member of the Board of Trustees of the Chattanooga, lodge.

The members of the Chattancoga lodge attending the funeral were: F. R. Betterton, Chaplain; W. P. Pyott, Exalted Ruler; W. R. Snyder, Leading Knight; W. B. Harris, Loyal Knight; Charles Reif, Lecturing Guard; H. B. Debardelben, George Hall, J. C. Hibbetts, S. S. Price, Fred Bitler, J. P. Schlessinger, H. . M. Reed, A. F. Hahn, T. J. King, T. H. Cooke, D. J. Crabtree, Emil Wassman, and Strang Nicklin. The party came to Paris on a special interurban car from Lexington, and returned late in the afternoon.

In the death of "Dick" Nippert the city of Paris and his many friends one of Nature's noblemen, if ever there was one so fittingly described. To his friends his friendship was one of the most enduring and unselfish kind, and he was in his element when doing something for their pleasure. He was a man of the highest character, of a happy disposition, and his friends were without number. One of his greatest pleasures was to come to Paris twice a year and mingle with the friends of his boy. hood days. He loved Paris and its people, among whom the days of his youth was spent. In his death the Grim Reaper has harvested a splendid life. Paris mourrs him dead, but will keep his memory alive. Especially will this be true of the small band remaining here who were schoolmates at the old Paris City School, where he became a favorite by the very qualities that endeared him to others in later life. Peace to his ashes!

The convicts boarded a freight train leaving Paris at 7:20 a. m., the officers missing them by the narrow margin of a few moments. Word was sent to the authorities at Cynthiana, and the train was flagged there. When it came to a stop the fugitives were seen to leap from the rear end of the train and disappear in an adjacent cornfield. A posse of citizens, headed by Sheriff Million and Patrolmen Dickey and Wilson, surrounded the field and made a search, but the men contrived to elude them and were still at large at last accounts.

When You Feel Out of Sorts and See Things With a Dul! Eye

LOOK TO YOUR BLOOD

Pale Complexions, Languid Feelings, Lowered Vitality, Need More Red Blood-Take Pepto-Mangan

So many people spend week after week feeling down and out. They never stop to think that something really is the matter. They satisfy themselves by saying. "Oh, I'm not sick. I'll be all right to-morrow.'

And to-morrow comes again and again. Still they feel depressed and languid, scarcely able to get around. If you don't feel like yourself, you are not yourself. If you are weak and pale, your blood needs strengthening. You should know about Pepto-Mangan, that famous blood tonic. Physicians recommend it and prescribe it because it contains just the ingredients needed to make red blood. It renews your energy, puts you where you ought to be. Begin with it to-day. Get the tablets if they will be more convenient to take than the liquid. Both have the same medicinal properties. But be sure you get the genuine Pepto-Mangan. Ask for "Gude's" and he sure that the full name, "Gude's Pepto-Man-gan," is on the package. (adv)

—The people are somewhat wrought up here over the two sets of candidates for the County School Board. There is much discussion in groups on the street about propaganda which are being circulated by the candidates of each Board. The voters of Millersburg would like to be enlightened by the exponents of these candidates, as to just what they stand for, what they propose to follow, and what pledges they are to make the people. This can be done either in a joint meeting or at separate times. Please let us hear from the two sets of candidates. And as we have heard so much about propagandas, let us determine after hearing issues whether there are any propogandas.
